CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalogue will be offered and sold subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. The word "Galleries," wherever used in these Conditions of Sale, means the Kende Galleries, Inc.
2. The Galleries have exercised reasonable care to catalogue and describe correctly the property to be sold, but they do not warrant the correctness of description, genuineness, authenticity or condition of said property.
3. Unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale, all bids are to be for the lot as a whole and as numbered in the catalogue.
4. The highest bidder accepted by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer may, in his discretion, determine who is the successful bidder, and his decision shall be final; or the auctioneer may reoffer and resell the article in dispute.
5. Any bid which is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, or which is merely a nominal or fractional advance over the previous bid, may be rejected by the auctioneer, in his discretion, if in his judgment such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.
6. The name and address of the buyer of each article, or lot, shall be given to the Galleries immediately following the sale thereof, and payment of the whole purchase price, or such part thereof as the Galleries may require, shall be immediately made by the purchaser thereof. If the foregoing condition, or any other applicable condition herein, is not complied with, the sale may, at the option of the Galleries, be cancelled, and the article, or lot, reoffered for sale.
7. Unless the sale is advertised and announced as an unrestricted sale, or a sale without reserve, consignors reserve the right to bid.
8. Except as herein otherwise provided, title will pass to the highest bidder upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter the property is at the purchaser's sole risk and responsibility.
9. Articles sold and not paid for in full and not taken by noon of the day following the sale may be turned over by the Galleries to a carrier to be delivered to a storehouse for the account and risk of the purchaser, and at his cost. If the purchase price has not been so paid in full, the Galleries may either cancel the sale, and any partial payment already made shall thereupon be forfeited as liquidated damages, or they may resell the same without notice to the buyer and for his account and risk, and hold him responsible for any deficiency.

10. If for any cause whatsoever any article sold cannot be delivered or cannot be delivered in as good condition as the same may have been at the time of sale, the sale will be cancelled, and any amount that may have been paid on account of the sale will be returned to the purchaser.

11. In addition to the purchase price, the buyer will be required to pay the New York City sales tax, unless the buyer is exempt from the payment thereof.

12. The Galleries, subject to these Conditions of Sale and to such terms and conditions as they may prescribe, but without charge for their services, will undertake to make bids for responsible parties approved by them. Requests for such bidding must be given with such clearness as to leave no room for misunderstanding as to the amount to be bid and must state the catalogue number of the item and the name or title of the article to be bid on. If bids are to be made on several articles listed as one item in the catalogue, the request should state the amount to be bid on each article, unless the item contains the notation "Lot," in which case the request should state the amount to be bid "For the Lot." The Galleries reserve the right to decline to undertake to make such bids.

13. The Galleries will facilitate the employment of carriers and packers by purchasers but will not be responsible for the acts of such carriers or packers in any respect whatsoever.

14. These Conditions of Sale cannot be altered except in writing by the Galleries or by public announcement by the auctioneer at the time of sale.

THE LIBRARY of Mrs. Cortlandt Field Bishop which is described in the following pages represents the discriminating and diversified taste of the connoisseur, not only in the wide range of subjects which form this splendid reader's library, but in the superb condition of the books themselves, and in the handsome bindings which charm the eye as well as the sense.

As might be expected, here may be found sets of the works of the Standard Authors, in Limited and Best Editions. There is also a Collected Set of First Editions of the Works of Charles Dickens, consisting of 77 volumes, which comprises not only the accredited works of Dickens, but a number of the imitations of his writing which were prompted by the amazing popularity Dickens achieved with his "Pickwick Papers." There is also a copy of the genuine First Edition of his "A Strange Gentleman," with the genuine frontispiece by "Phiz" which is so rare, that few Dickens collections can boast of having it in its correct state.

A few of the exceptional books worthy of special mention are: An Extra Illustrated copy of "Book of the Signers," (Lot 48), containing original autograph letters of Franklin, Jefferson, and others; Mrs. Bray's "Life of Thomas Stothard," (Lot 57) First Edition, extra illustrated with about 450 plates engraved by Stothard; a beautifully Extra Illustrated copy of "Tom Jones," with the charming plates by Moreau le Jeune, and others, (Lot 146); the excessively rare 1835 edition of Le Sage's "Histoire de Gil Blas," one of a very few copies printed on China paper, (Lot 261); a unique copy of the Abbé Prevost's "Histoire de Manon Lescaut," the sole example printed on Peau de Vélin, (Lot 336); and a magnificent set of Rousseau's Works, enhanced by the insertion of a four-page autograph letter by Rousseau and 96 extra plates, including the splendid Suite by Moreau in from two to four states, (Lot 355).

A pleasing collection.

Sir

Monticello July 23. 13

I have duly received your favor of the 8th: and entirely concur in opinion with you as to the ease & importance of the inland navigation from S^t. Mary's to James river, and will certainly give it whatever aid may be in my power. as this may be best done by way of letters to those ~~about~~ on whom the measure would rest, I return you the blank petition. I go out so little & see so few people that I could do nothing with the petition. altho' it is ~~so~~ ^{as} this every man in the state would readily sign.
I am now myself pressing on the government to station from 50. to 100. gunboats in Lynnhaven river, as a sufficient defence for the Chesapeake bay & all it^{'s} waters. I am satisfied that were such a force there, no vessel of war would ever pass a night in the Chesapeake. but a previous operation absolutely necessary would be to open a Canal from the head of Lynnhaven river into the East river, to give a safe retreat to the gunboats if attacked from the shore of the river, and to enable them to go to the defence of Norfolk if attacked. as a military work the government has power to do it; altho' for the mere purposes of navigation they have not the to the Constitution to give them that power. Accept the assurance of my respect

Jefferson.

Mr. John De Laux.

THE 1835 "HISTOIRE DE GIL BLAS"
ONE OF THE VERY FEW COPIES ON CHINA PAPER

261. LE SAGE, ALAIN RENE.

HISTOIRE DE GIL BLAS DE SANTILLANE. Illustrated with numerous exquisite vignettes by Jean Gigoux. 8vo, full green straight-grain morocco, gilt tooled back, gilt paneled sides, gilt edges by MERCIER Sr. DE CUZIN.

Paris: Chez Paulin, 1835

FIRST EDITION WITH THESE ILLUSTRATIONS. ONE OF THE FEW COPIES PRINTED ON CHINA PAPER, OF VERY GREAT RARITY.

A VOLUME OF NOTABLE IMPORTANCE IN THE HISTORY OF THE GRAPHIC ARTS AND ONE THAT REVOLUTIONIZED THE ART OF BOOK ILLUSTRATION IN FRANCE. Embellished with no less than 600 wood engravings after Jean Gigoux, it was this work that showed with such brilliant success the possibilities of wood engraving as an illustrative medium and marked the beginning of a new era in the production of illustrated books in France. Brivois notes that in some copies of this work the marginal rule border is slightly undulated on the first three pages, but in the present copy these rules are straight.

occasion et les maux qui pourront en résulter me forcera à changer de résolution sur ce point, et à en prendre une dont quoiqu'il arrive rien ne me fera départir. Je vous déclare donc, en j'en ai fait le serment, que de mes jours je ne remettrai les pieds dans vos murs et que, contene de nourrir dans mon cœur les sentiments d'un vrai Citoyen de Genève, je n'en reprendrai jamais le titre; ainsi toute démarche qui pourroit tendre à me le rendre est inutile et vaine. Après avoir sacrifié mes droits les plus chers à l'honneur, je sacrifie ma plus douce espérance à la paix; il ne me reste plus rien à faire.

Adieu.
